4.6.1. The time of receipt of the Payment Order shall be the time when the Payment Order is received by Finolita. If the time of receipt of the Payment Order is not on a Business Day, the Payment Order shall be deemed to have been received on the following Business Day.

4.6.2. The Customer initiating a Payment Order and Finolita may agree that execution of the Payment Order shall start on a specific day or at the end of a certain period or on the day on which the Customer has put funds at the Finolita's disposal. In such case, the time of receipt of the Payment order shall be deemed to be the agreed day. If the agreed day is not a Business Day for Finolita, the Payment Order received shall be deemed to have been received on the following Business Day.

4.7. Execution time

4.7.1. The terms of the execution of Payment transaction and the duration of execution of other Services are set forth in these Terms and Conditions, Price list, and other additional agreements between the Parties, if such agreements are signed.

4.7.2. Payment orders inside the system of Finolita are executed immediately (up to a few minutes, unless the Payment transaction is suspended due to cases set forth by legal acts and these Terms and Conditions), regardless of business hours of Finolita.

4.7.3. After the time of receipt of a Payment Order, the amount of the Payment transaction in euro executed in the Republic of Lithuania and to other Member States is credited to the Customer's Account at the latest by the end of the next Business Day, excluding the case referred to in Section 4.7.5.

4.7.4. Where credit transfers are executed in euro in the Republic of Lithuania, Finolita shall ensure that, after the receipt of a Payment Order, the amount of the Payment transaction is credited to the Customer's Account on the same Business Day, provided that the point in time of receipt of the Payment Order is that Business Day by 12 p.m. Where the time of receipt of the Payment Order is after 12 p.m., Finolita shall ensure that the amount of the Payment transaction is credited to Finolita's account at the latest by the end of the next Business Day.

4.7.5. In the case provided for in Section 4.7.3, Finolita shall ensure that the amount of the Payment transaction is credited to Finolita's account on the day of execution of the Payment Order, and where the day of execution of the Payment Order is not the Business Day - on the next Business Day.

4.7.6. The time limit of execution of the Payment Transactions executed in the Republic of Lithuania and to other Member States in the currencies of Member States outside the euro area shall not exceed 4 (four) Business Days.

4.8. Credit value date

4.8.1. The credit value date for the Payee's payment account shall be no later than the Business Day on which the amount of the Payment transaction is credited to Finolita's account.

4.8.2. Finolita shall ensure that the amount of the Payment transaction is at the Payee's disposal immediately after that amount is credited to the Payee's payment account.

4.8.3. The debit value date for the Payer's account shall be no earlier than the point in time at which the amount of the Payment transaction is debited from that Account.

4.9. Additional use of measures of the identity verifications

4.9.1. The measures of the Customer's and/or User identity verification provided by Finolita may be used to confirm the identity of the Customer and/or User by providing information about Finolita's provided Services and / or provided to the Customer and/or User in all manner specified by Finolita (for example, video call, provision of the notary approved documents, etc.).

4.10. Mistakes

4.10.1. The Customer who notices that the funds that do not belong to him have been transferred to his Account must immediately notify Finolita to the effect. In such cases the Customer, as unauthorized beneficiary of transferred funds of the Payment transaction, shall be deprived of the right to dispose of the transferred funds and must forthwith remit such funds to the account designated by Finolita.

4.10.2. Finolita shall have the right to debit the amounts incorrectly credited to the Account through its own fault without a separate consent of the Customer, as unauthorized beneficiary of transferred funds of the Payment transaction and remit such funds to their due beneficiary.

4.10.3. If funds available in Account are already insufficient for the debit of incorrectly credited funds the Customer must repay the respective amount of funds to the account designated by Finolita within 3 (three) Business days of Finolita's request.

4.11. Payment Transactions where the amount is not known in advance

4.11.1. Where a Payment transaction is initiated by or through the Payee in the context of a card-based Payment transaction and the exact amount is not known at the moment when the Customer gives consent to execute the Payment Transaction, Finolita may reserve funds on the Customer's Account only if the Customer has given consent to the exact amount of the funds to be reserved.

4.11.2. Finolita shall release the funds reserved on the Customer's Account under Section 4.11.1 of this Agreement without undue delay after receipt of the information about the exact amount of the Payment transaction and at the latest immediately after receipt of the Payment order.

4.12. Standing Orders

4.12.1. By entering into Standing order agreement via the System, the Customer gives its multiple irrevocable consent to Finolita to execute Payment transactions specified in the Standing order agreement and confirms that all Payment transactions performed by Finolita according to it are duly authorised by the Customer.

4.12.2. The Terms and Conditions shall form an integral part of Standing order agreement and shall be applicable to the Standing order agreement, unless otherwise agreed between the parties.

4.12.3. The Customer must pay Commission fees to Finolita for all Payment transactions deriving from the Standing order agreement and/or performed by Finolita in accordance with the Price List.

4.12.4. The Customer is obligated to provide data and requisites in the System in a manner required by Finolita. Start and end dates of Standing orders are specified filling the form of Standing order. In case it is intended to conclude termless Standing orders, the end date of Standing orders is left blank when filling the form of Standing order. If standing order execution date happens to be not a Business day, the Standing order shall be executed on the following Business day.

4.12.5. Finolita is obligated to make Payment transactions under the Standing order agreement if there is sufficient amount of funds for making the payment and paying related Commission fee to the Finolita is available in the Account on the payment execution date. If on the Standing order's execution day, the Account has insufficient balance in the payment currency and to the extent required for execution of the standing order and related commissions, specified in the Price list, standing order shall not be executed.

4.12.6. Standing order Agreement shall be terminated in the cases referred to in Section XIII, as well as in the cases:

- (a) where Finolita receives a notification on termination of Standing order agreement provided by the Customer no later than 3 (three) Business days prior to the Standing order's execution day;
- (b) where Customer receives a notification on termination of Standing order agreement provided by the Finolita no later than 30 (thirty) Business days prior Standing order's execution day;
- (c) upon expiration of end date specified in Standing order agreement;
- (d) upon closure of the Payment Account, from which the Standing orders should be made, and/or if the Account to which the Standing order should be made is closed.

V. APPLICATION FEE, COMMISSION FEES FOR PROVISION OF SERVICES OF FINOLITA, DEFAULT INTEREST AND CURRENCY EXCHANGE

- 5.1. The Customer acknowledges that Finolita may at any time use this information for the purposes stated in the Terms and Conditions or for ensuring the compliance with Applicable regulations.
- 6.6. If Customer contacts Finolita by phone number provided in the Website the Customer shall be verified on the basis of the Customers data and means established by Finolita.
- 6.7. For the purpose of communication, the contact details shall be used. Where the contact details of the Customer are not indicated in the documents furnished to Finolita (applications, questionnaires, etc.), Finolita shall have the right to deliver the notices using the most recent contact details specified by the Customer. The Customers are able to communicate with Finolita by contacts that are indicated in the Website or the e-mail that is provided in the Terms and Conditions.
- 6.8. In case of communication through the post, letters are delivered to the other party's address and shall be deem delivered: (i) on the date of actual delivery if delivered in person; (ii) on the third day after delivery of the notice saying that the letter cannot be delivered to the other party or that the letter was rejected or was not collected by the other party within the collection period, even if the addressee has no knowledge of the mail.

- 6.9. The Parties must immediately inform each other about changes in their contact details. At the request of Finolita, the Customer must furnish the respective documents supporting the change of the Contact details. If this requirement is not fulfilled, the notification communicated on the basis of the most recent details specified to the other Party shall be deemed as duly sent and any obligation fulfilled on the basis of such details – duly discharged.
- 6.10. The Customer who fails to receive from Finolita the notices which it had to receive under the Terms and Conditions or for the provision of which the Customer has submitted a separate request to Finolita, the Customer must immediately inform Finolita.
- 6.11. Upon receipt of the notice from Finolita, the Customer must immediately verify the correctness and accuracy of the information specified in the notice and having identified any inconsistencies, irregularities or having found other shortcomings – promptly inform Finolita. This section shall not apply to those Notices of Finolita which according to their subject matter, Terms and Conditions or legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania, are not subject to the verification and/or approval by the Customer.

VII. CHANGES TO THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND TERMS OF THE PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 7.1. The Customer and/or User or Finolita may have the option to terminate Terms and Conditions at any time with immediate effect by giving prior written notice 5 (five) Business days in advance if:
- 7.1.1. the other party commits a material and irremediable breach of the Terms and Conditions;
 - 7.1.2. the other party commits material but remediable breach of the Terms and Conditions and does not remedy such breach within 20 Business days upon receipt of a written notice stating the material breach and requesting remedy;
 - 7.1.3. the other party becomes insolvent or any corporate action, legal proceedings or other procedure or step is taken or threatened in relation to (i) the suspension of payments, a moratorium of any indebtedness, winding-up, dissolution, administration or reorganization, (ii) a composition, assignment or arrangement with any creditor or (iii) the appointment of a liquidator, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, judicial custodian, compulsory manager, administrative receiver, administrator or similar officer.

- 7.2. Finolita will publish any information related to changes of the Terms and Conditions on Website and will personally inform the Customer about the changes of Terms and Conditions, applicable fees and / or the terms of services by publishing the information on its Website and personally through the Account of the Customer and/or User and by choosing one additional option from the following - i) post or ii) by electronic messages (e-mail, short message service (SMS), etc.) sent to the Customer at least 60 (sixty) calendar days before such changes will entry into force. - 7.3. The Customer may decline the changes to the Terms and Conditions and terminate the Terms and Conditions and provide information according to the procedure determined in Section 13.9.
- 7.4. If no objection notice is received from the Customer by Finolita in timeframe specified in Section 7.2., it should be considered that the Customer accepted the changes.
- 7.5. In case if the Customer terminates the Terms and Conditions under Section 7.3., all of the obligations to Finolita arising prior to the date of termination of the Terms and Conditions must be properly executed by the Customer.
- 7.6. In case the Customer agrees with such changes, the Customer is no longer entitled subsequently to submit to Finolita objections and/or claims regarding the content of such changes.

VIII. SECURITY AND CORRECTIVE MEASURES

- 8.1. Obligations of the Customer and/or User related with Payment Instruments
- 8.2. The Customer and/or User authorized to use a Payment instrument must:
 - 8.2.1. use the Payment instrument in observance of conditions regulating the issuance and use of the Payment instrument as specified in the Terms and Conditions;
 - 8.2.2. having found out that the Payment instrument has been stolen or lost in any other matter, suspecting or obtaining information about illegal acquisition of the Payment instrument or unauthorised use thereof as well as about the facts or suspicions that personalised security data of the Payment instrument have become known or might be used by third parties, promptly notify Finolita and request to block the Customer's Account. In order to continue to use the Account, the Customer and/or User shall change the password, use other additional account confirmation instruments or use safer instruments and delete unsafe additional login confirmation instruments. In order to protect funds from possible illegal actions of third persons, Customer shall also immediately inform Finolita about theft or other loss of personal identity document of the authorized representative.

8.3. Upon receiving the Payment instrument, the Customer and/or User must promptly take all actions to safeguard personalised security data of the received Payment instrument and it is recommended:

8.3.1. to update software, applications, anti-virus programs, browsers and other programs in time;

8.3.2. to protect devices with passwords, PIN codes or other safety instruments;

8.3.3. to evaluate received emails with cautiousness, even if Finolita is indicated as the sender. Finolita will never request the Customer to download attachments or install software. Attachments to fraud e-mails may contain viruses which can harm devices or pose a risk to the safety of the Customer and/or User profile.

8.3.4. not to click on unknown links, open unknown documents, install software or application from unknown, unreliable sources or visit unsafe websites.

8.4. In case Finolita suspects and / or notices the suspicious actions which may cause the harm and or cause the harm to the Customer and/or User and its Account, suspected or executed fraud by other persons or the threats for the security of Services Finolita shall contact with the Customer and/or User for giving the further instructions and / or asking the Customer and/or User to provide the information which may help to prevent the possible harm.

8.5. Suspension of Customer Account

8.5.1. Finolita reserves the right to suspend, at any time and at its sole discretion, the Customer Account (or certain functionalities thereof such as uploading, receiving, sending and/or withdrawing funds), inter alia:

(a) where Finolita believes it is necessary or desirable to protect the security of the Customer Account; or

(b) if any Payment transactions are made which Finolita in its sole discretion deems to be:

- (i) made in breach of these Terms and Conditions or in breach of the security requirements of the Customer Account; or
- (ii) suspicious, unauthorized or fraudulent, including without limitation in relation to money laundering, terrorism financing, fraud or other illegal activities; or
- (c) upon the insolvency, liquidation, winding up, bankruptcy, administration, receivership or dissolution of the Customer, or where Finolita reasonably considers that there is a threat of the same in relation to the Customer; or
- (d) where anything occurs which in the opinion of Finolita suggests that the Customer shall be unable to provide the Customer's products/services and/or otherwise fulfil the contacts that it has with its Customers; or
- (e) if the Payment transactions are for the sale of goods and/or services which fall outside of the agreed business activities of the Customer, or where the Customer's end user presents Payment transaction and fails to deliver the relevant goods and/or services.

8.5.2. Finolita will make reasonable efforts to inform the Customer of any such suspension in advance, or if this is not practicable, immediately afterwards and give its reasons for such suspension unless informing the Customer would compromise security measures or is otherwise prohibited by law or regulatory requirements.

8.5.3. In addition, Finolita reserves the right (at its sole discretion) to suspend the Customer Account (or certain functionalities thereof such as uploading, receiving, sending and/or withdrawing funds) at any time where it is required to do so under relevant and Applicable regulations. Finolita will make reasonable efforts to inform the Customer of any such suspension unless Finolita is prohibited from doing so by law or under an order from a competent court or authority.

8.6. Blocking of the Account and the Payment Instrument

8.6.1. In addition to the provisions regarding suspension of the Services mentioned earlier in these Terms and Conditions, Finolita has the right to block the Account (to stop the execution of the Payment transactions at all or partially) and / or the Payment instrument if such instrument has been given to the Customer in such cases as follows:

- (a) in case of the objectively justified reasons related to the security the Payment instrument, the suspicion of unauthorized or fraudulent use of Payment instrument;
- (b) in case if the Customer does not follow with the terms of the present Terms and Conditions;
- (c) in case if Finolita finds out that the Payment instrument has been stolen or lost in any other manner, or has the reasonable suspicions that funds in the Account may be used by the other persons for the unlawful actions, including but not limited to criminal activities;
- (d) in case of other grounds set forth by the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania and / or the cases indicated in the additional agreements signed between the Parties.

8.6.2. In the cases provided for in Section 8.4.1. of the Terms and Conditions, Finolita shall notify the Customer in the manner established in the Terms and Conditions about the blocking of the Customer Account and/or Payment instrument and about the reasons for such blocking, doing its best to notify the Customer before the blocking and no later than immediately after the blocking, except in the cases when the provision of such information would impair the safeguards or is prohibited by legal acts.

8.6.3. The Customer Account and/or the Payment instrument shall be blocked at the Customer's initiative when the Customer submits the respective notice to Finolita in writing or using Durable medium.

8.6.4. Finolita shall cancel the blocking of the Customer's Account and/or the Payment instrument when the reasons for the blocking cease to exist, when the blocking has been initiated by the Customer, and when Finolita receives the respective written request of the Customer to withdraw the request to block the Account / Payment instrument. Finolita shall have the right to replace the blocked Payment instrument with a new one with additional Commission fees applied.

8.6.5. Finolita undertakes to store information of unauthorised use of the Payment Instrument for 18 months from the notification provided by the Customer and shall provide information to the Customer on his request in a paper or another Durable medium.

- 8.6.6. Finolita shall not be held liable for the Customer's losses incurred as a result of blocking of the Customer account and/or the Payment instrument, where such blocking has been performed in observance of the procedure established in the Terms and Conditions and applicable law.
- 8.7. The notices provided by the Customer regarding the unauthorized or improperly executed Payment transactions
 - 8.7.1. The Customer is obligated to check the information about the executed Payment transactions at least 1 (one) time per month.
 - 8.7.2. The Customer is obligated to inform Finolita in writing about the unauthorized or improperly executed Payment transactions, including the noticed mistakes, inaccuracies in the statement within 5 (five) Business days from the acknowledge of such circumstances and in any case not later than within 6 (six) months from the date on which (in the opinion of the Customer) Finolita executed unauthorized or improperly executed the Payment transaction.
 - 8.7.3. Where the Customer fails to notify Finolita of unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment transactions within the time limit established in Section 8.5.2 of the Terms and Conditions, it shall be considered that the Customer has unconditionally confirmed Payment transactions executed within the Customer Account.
- 8.8. The liability for the unauthorized Payment transactions
 - 8.8.1. Upon receipt of a respective notice of the Customer within the time limits specified under Section 8.5.2 or having established that the Payment transaction has not been authorised by the Customer, Finolita shall refund to the Customer the amount of the unauthorised Payment transaction without undue delay, and in any event no later than by the end of the next Business day, and, if applicable, restore the debited Customer Account to the state in which it would have been had the unauthorised Payment transaction not take place except where Finolita has reasonable grounds to suspect fraud and has informed the supervisory authority in writing of these grounds. The notice referred to in this Section shall be submitted by 04:00 pm of the respective Business day. The notice submitted after this hour shall be considered to be received on the next Business Day of Finolita.
 - 8.8.2. When a Payment transaction is initiated through a payment initiation service provider, Finolita shall immediately, but no later by the end of the next Business Day, refund to the Customer the amount of the unauthorized Payment transaction and, where applicable, restore the debited Customer Account to the state in which it would have been had the unauthorised Payment transaction not taken place.

- 8.8.3. If the Payment transaction was unauthorized due to circumstances determined by the payment initiation service provider, the payment initiation service provider shall immediately, at the request of Finolita, compensate any losses incurred or sums paid as a result of the refund to the Customer, including the amount of the unauthorized Payment transaction.
 - 8.8.4. Save to the correctly notified unauthorised payments, as determined in Section 8.6.1-8.6.3, the Customer shall bear losses relating to unauthorised Payment transactions.
- 8.9. Liability of Finolita for proper execution of Payment transaction
- 8.9.1. If the Customer initiating the Payment order executes a Payment order by identifying the Unique identifier, such Payment order shall be deemed to be executed properly. Finolita has the right, but it is not obliged to check whether the Unique identifier presented in the Payment order received by Finolita corresponds to the Account holder's name and surname (name), in cases the name differs, Finolita shall have the right to refuse to execute such Payment transaction.
 - 8.9.2. If the unique identifier is presented to Finolita with the account to be credited or debited from the Account, the Payment order is deemed to be executed properly if it was executed according to the specified Unique identifier. If Finolita carries out the said inspection (for example, in the prevention of money laundering risk) and establishes that the Unique Identifier submitted to Finolita obviously differs from the account holder's forename and surname (name), Finolita shall have the right to refuse to execute such Payment transaction.
 - 8.9.3. If the Unique Identifier specified by the person initiating the Payment is incorrect, the Company shall not be held liable for non-execution or incorrect execution of the Payment Transaction, but must take all possible measures to trace such Payment Transaction and seek the recovery of all funds of such Payment Transaction. The Company may charge commission on the Client for such recovery.
 - 8.9.4. In the event that the collection of funds under the Section 8.7.3 is not possible, Finolita, upon written request of the Customer shall provide all information available to Finolita and relevant to the Customer in order for the Customer to file a legal claim to recover the funds.

- 8.9.5. Finolita is liable for the properly initiated Payment order with the terms set forth by these Terms and Conditions and / or additional agreements signed between the Parties.
 - 8.9.6. Finolita is liable for the not applying the Commission fees or not giving back the already paid Commission fee in case if the Payment order was not executed or executed improperly due to the fault of Finolita.
 - 8.9.7. Finolita is liable only for the direct losses of the Customer.
 - 8.9.8. Finolita is not liable for claims raised between the Payee and Payer and such claims are not reviewed by Finolita. The Customer may submit the claim to Finolita only regarding the non-performance or improperly performance of the obligations of Finolita.
 - 8.9.9. Limitations of liability of Finolita shall not be applied if such limitations are prohibited by the applicable law.
 - 8.9.10. The conditions of the re-payment of the amount of the Payment transaction of the Payee or initiated by the Payee are the same as they are set forth in Law on Payments of the Republic of Lithuania, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties.
 - 8.9.11. Neither party shall be liable for any economic loss, delay or failure in performance of any part of the Terms and Conditions to the extent that such loss, delay or failure is caused by fire, flood, explosion, accident, war, strike, embargo, governmental requirements, civil and military authority, civil unrest, unavailability of public internet, hacking or distributed DoS attacks, inability to secure materials or labor, termination of vital agreements by third parties, action of the other party or any other cause beyond such party's reasonable control.
- 8.10. Refunds of Payment Transactions initiated by or through a Payee
 - 8.10.1. The Parties agree that a Payer shall not be entitled to a refund from Finolita of the full amount of the authorised and already executed Payment transaction initiated by or through a Payee.
- 8.11. Notification about suspected or actual fraud or security threats

- 8.11.1. Finolita shall notify the Customer and/or User about suspected or actual fraud or security threats in the System or using another Durable Medium.

IX. ACITIVITIES THAT ARE PROHIBITED

System, opened Customer Account and payed Commission fee in accordance with the notification received from Finolita in a manner established in Section 3.1.11.

- 15.2. The Terms and Conditions including all schedules and other documents referred to herein, represents the entire agreement of the parties in relation to its subject matter. Each party acknowledges that it has entered into the Terms and Conditions in reliance only on the representations, warranties, promises and terms contained in the Terms and Conditions and, save as expressly set out in the Terms and Conditions, neither party shall have any liability in respect of any other representation, warranty or promise made prior to the date of the Terms and Conditions unless it was made fraudulently.
- 15.3. Terms and Conditions are drawn up in accordance with current Applicable regulations.
- 15.4. The Parties agree that the requirements for the service provision applicable for consumers in relation to Article 3 (7) of the Law on Payments of the Republic of Lithuania are not applicable. It shall mean the Parties agree disapply or apply differentially, to the fullest extent possible, provisions of Articles 13, 15, 29(3), 37, 39, 41, 44, 51, 52, as well as to deviate from the period indicated in Article 36 of the Law on Payments of the Republic of Lithuania.
- 15.5. During the provision of the Services Finolita may act as a partner of other payment service providers by collecting the required data, forwarding them to such service providers and / or concluding contracts with the Customers for the provision of such services on their behalf.
- 15.6. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that Finolita operates solely as a payment intermediary and that Finolita:
 - 15.6.1. under no circumstances functions as a seller, buyer, dealer, retailer, auctioneer, supplier, distributor, manufacturer, broker, agent or merchant of Customer product/service; and
 - 15.6.2. makes no representations or warranties and does not ensure the quality, safety or legality of any Customer product/service.
- 15.7. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that any dispute regarding any Customer's product/service is between the sender and receiver of the funds and/or the supplier and receiver of the goods or services. Any transaction connected with the Customer's products/services shall only obligate the Customer. Finolita shall not be a party to any resulting dispute including but not limited to disputes over performance and liability issues relating to the delivery, quality, quantity or use of the Customer products/services. Customer shall fully indemnify Finolita against any loss or liability (including full reimbursement of any legal and professional costs) Finolita suffers or incurs as a result of, or in connection with, any claim made or threatened by a third party relating to any Customer's products/services.

- 15.8. Finolita and the Customer are independent contractors under the Terms and Conditions and nothing herein will be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or agency relationship between them. Neither party has authority to enter into agreements of any kind on behalf of the other.
- 15.9. Customer may not transfer or assign any rights or obligations he may have under the Terms and Conditions without Finolita's prior written consent. Finolita reserves the right to transfer or assign the Terms and Conditions and all rights or obligations under the Terms and Conditions without notice and without Customer's consent. The foregoing does not apply if either party changes its corporate name.
- 15.10. If any part of the Terms and Conditions is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable then such part shall be severed from the remainder of the Terms and Conditions, which shall continue to be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
